

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS
BOARD OF GOVERNORS

COMPENSATION AND MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. PURPOSE

The Compensation and Management Development Committee (the “Committee”) is appointed by the Board of Governors (the “Board”) of The American National Red Cross (the “Corporation”). The purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in: (1) overseeing the Corporation's compensation philosophy and its employee compensation and benefits programs consistent with such philosophy; (2) evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and making recommendations to the Board regarding the CEO's compensation, benefits and incentive programs; (3) reviewing and making determinations regarding compensation, benefits and incentive programs for other senior officers and executives that it determines to be “disqualified persons” (as defined in Section 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended); (4) overseeing and reviewing the management development and succession plans for the Corporation; and (5) overseeing and having other responsibilities related to the administration and investment of all nationally-sponsored funded and unfunded employee benefit plans and programs of the Corporation, including all plans and programs that are subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (the “Benefit Plans”).

II. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be composed of at least three but not more than eight members of the Board. All members of the Committee shall be appointed and subject to removal by the Board in accordance with the Corporation’s Bylaws and shall meet the independence standards adopted by the Board.

III. AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

In furtherance of the Committee’s purpose, the Committee shall have the following authority and responsibilities:

1. Review the Corporation’s compensation philosophies and policies; obtain and review market data with respect to the compensation and benefits provided by comparable organizations for comparable services to those provided to the Corporation's CEO and other Disqualified Persons.
2. Annually, review the CEO’s performance and the reasonableness and appropriateness of his or her compensation and benefits in relation to the marketplace.

3. Review and approve annual performance objectives for the CEO, evaluate the CEO's performance against these objectives and make recommendations to the Board for the CEO's annual salary and benefits based on the evaluation and comparable market data.
4. Annually, establish the CEO's annual objective and measurable incentive plan goals, determine the measures and levels of performance for each goal and, if appropriate, the payout under the incentive plan and make recommendations to the Board for any annual incentive payments to the CEO.
5. Annually review and approve a list of Disqualified Persons, pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 4958, as amended.
 - (a) Review and approve the terms of employment and total compensation for Disqualified Persons, including annual salary, incentives and benefits, based on comparable market data. Specifically, the Committee shall review and approve base salary ranges and participation and benefit levels associated with all forms of compensation for Disqualified Persons. This includes, for example, approving:
 - (i) Eligibility for incentive compensation plan participation and potential incentive compensation levels;
 - (ii) Annual objective and measurable performance goals for Disqualified Persons, established under any incentive compensation plans;
 - (iii) Employment, severance, and retention compensation arrangements; and
 - (iv) Participation and benefit levels associated with supplemental retirement plans.
 - (b) The CEO shall provide the Committee with an annual evaluation of the performance of Disqualified Persons and may make recommendations to the Committee regarding their base salary increases, payouts under any incentive compensation plans or arrangements, and benefits.
6. Determine whether the Corporation's compensation and benefit plans are appropriate compared to market and otherwise for the skills employed and make appropriate recommendations to the Board regarding the need for changes in the Corporation's overall compensation structure and benefits programs.
7. Review management's long-range planning for executive development and succession, including emergency procedures for management succession in the event of the unexpected death, disability or departure of the CEO.

8. Have general oversight responsibilities over the administration and investment of the Benefit Plans. This includes:
- (a) designate that there shall be a Benefit Plan Administration Committee of the Corporation (the “BPAC”) and a Benefit Plan Investment Committee of the Corporation (the “BPIC”) with such powers and authority as shall be set forth in charters approved by the Committee;
 - (b) appoint and remove members of, and fill vacancies on, the BPAC and BPIC;
 - (c) delegate signatory authority to the BPAC for administration of the Benefit Plans that are subject to the authority of the BPAC and delegate signatory authority to the BPIC for investment matters of the funded Benefit Plans for further delegation in each case to management;
 - (d) have general oversight responsibility over the BPIC and monitor the performance of funded Benefit Plans in relation to benchmarks and spending requirements and receive regular reports from BPIC on investments of the funded Benefit Plans;
 - (e) approve investment policies and objectives for all funded Benefit Plans (investment policies and objectives will consider risks associated with liquidity, currency and leverage among others) and determine funding rates for funded Benefit Plans;
 - (f) delegate to BPIC authority and responsibility for the selection and retention of investment managers (as well as corollary appointments of financial institutions to serve as a passive directed trustee) and for the investment, sale, reinvestment and management of monies for the funded Benefit Plans, which shall be kept, sold, invested and reinvested in accordance with such investment policies and objectives as shall from time to time be directed by the Committee;
 - (g) have general oversight responsibility over the Benefit Plans and the BPAC, including the receipt of regular reports from the BPAC on benefit plan administration;
 - (h) review significant modifications or amendments to the Benefit Plans (such as those that significantly alter design offerings of the Benefit Plans or the Corporation’s compensation philosophies; have significant financial implications not already approved as part of the annual budget process of the Corporation; or potentially subject the Corporation to significant legal, financial, or reputational risk) and, if approved by the Committee, make recommendations to the Board for approval.

9. Delegate any of its responsibilities to subcommittees or delegate authority to implement or execute actions approved by the Committee to the Chairman, as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. Retain, oversee, and direct such compensation consultants, outside counsel and other advisors as the Committee may deem appropriate in its discretion, and shall have sole authority to approve related fees and retention terms.
10. Have such other authority and responsibilities as may be provided in the Corporation's Bylaws or may otherwise be delegated to the Committee by the Board.
11. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Corporation's Bylaws and applicable law, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or advisable.

The Committee shall keep minutes of all its proceedings and will report its actions to the Board at the next meeting of the Board.

IV. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities. The Chair of the Committee, in consultation with the other Committee members, shall determine the frequency and length of the meetings and shall set agendas consistent with this charter.

V. QUORUM

A majority of members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The act of a majority of the Committee members present at meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Committee.

VI. EVALUATION OF COMMITTEE

The Committee shall conduct an annual evaluation of its performance and report the results of such review to the Board. In connection with the annual review, the Committee shall also recommend to the Board any modifications of this Charter that the Committee deems necessary or appropriate.
